

Parent Plitt Loan

Randolph College's loan program helps parents pay for a college education in regular installments over an extended period of time at an attractive interest rate. Plitt recipients are charged simple interest at the annual percentage rate of 3.5% (calculated on a daily basis on the outstanding balance).

The Loan Process

Plitt application information entered into the CampusDoor Web site will be processed securely and electronically. Your credit history will be reviewed and several eligibility checks will be performed. CampusDoor will notify you if more information or documentation is required to complete your loan application. Student Financial Services (SFS) can facilitate the process of sending any and all student documents via e-mail or fax.

Once an application has been approved, the applicant must officially accept the offer using the CampusDoor Web site. Then, both parties must sign a promissory note.

If you encounter difficulties with the loan application, contact the CampusDoor help line at 717-254-1172.

All new Plitt loans are serviced by ECSI. Billing questions can be directed to its help line at 888-549-3274.

Where to start

The student (applicant) should complete the loan application with their parent or co-signer. Both parties should ensure they understand the terms of the loan, as both parties will be held responsible. Bills will be sent to the co-signer by default.
