

Endowments

Endowed Chairs and Named Professorships

The Susan Duval Adams Chair of English: endowed by a group of her friends to honor the memory of a noble young lady and to perpetuate her usefulness.

The Helen and Agnes Ainsworth Visiting Professorship in American Culture: established by Helen M. Hilseweck '37 to bring a visiting professor to campus each year who will extend the intellectual focus of the American Culture Program throughout the College community. Initiatives may include colloquia for faculty, day and weekend excursions for students, public lectures, and other activities.

The Alice Hilseweck Ball Chair in Asian Studies: created through the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Byrd M. Ball (Alice Hilseweck '61) to support a distinguished faculty member and to recognize outstanding teaching and scholarship in the field of Asian Studies.

Charles A. Dana Professorships (Five): established by a gift from the Charles A. Dana Foundation.

The Katherine Haas Eichelbaum Chair in English: established through the generosity of Kay Haas Eichelbaum of the Class of 1932.

The Mary Sabel Girard Chair in Psychology: established through the estate of Mrs. Girard to recognize outstanding teaching and scholarship in the field of psychology.

The Herzog Family Chair in Environmental Studies: established by the Herzog family to provide support to a distinguished faculty member and to recognize outstanding teaching and scholarship in the field of environmental studies.

The Theodore H. Jack Chair of History: named in honor of a distinguished educator and president of the College from 1933 to 1952 and established by gifts from members of the Board of Trustees, his family, alumnae, and friends.

The Gillie A. Larew Chair of Mathematics: endowed by the Alumnae Association in honor of a distinguished teacher and scholar, dean of the College, and a loyal and devoted alumna of the Class of 1903.

The Lemon Chair in Philosophy and Religion: established through the generosity of Barbara Boyle Lemon '57, trustee emerita.

The Fernando Wood Martin Professorship: named in honor of a former distinguished professor of chemistry and established by a gift of $20,000 from his estate.

The Matilda Wynn Myers Chair in American Culture: established by Robert Manson Myers, Ph.D. in memory of his mother to recognize outstanding teaching and scholarship in the field of American Studies.

The William F. Quillian, Jr. International Visiting Professorship: established by the Trustees of R-MWC to honor Dr. William F. Quillian, Jr., president emeritus. This fund brings an international scholar to campus each year to teach, to lead faculty colloquia, and to offer public presentations.

The Carl Stern Chair of Economics: named in honor of economics faculty emeritus member Carl Stern and established by alumnae and friends in the "Campaign for Randolph-Macon Woman's College, 1980-1985."

The Catherine Ehrman Thoresen '23 and William E. Thoresen Chair in Humanities: established through the generosity of the Thoresen Foundation, to recognize outstanding teaching and scholarship among the faculty.

The Catherine Ehrman Thoresen '23 and William E. Thoresen Chair in the Sciences: established through the generosity of the Thoresen Foundation, to recognize outstanding teaching and scholarship among the faculty.

The Catherine Ehrman Thoresen '23 and William E. Thoresen Chair in the Social Sciences: established through the generosity of the Thoresen Foundation, to recognize outstanding teaching and scholarship among the faculty.

The William Ernest Thoresen and Catherine Ehrman Thoresen '23 Chair of Speech and Theatre: endowed by Mr. and Mrs. Thoresen.

The Mary Frances Williams Chair of Humanities: named in honor of a distinguished emerita professor of art and endowed by the Sarah and Pauline Maier Scholarship Foundation, Inc.

Special Endowment Funds

The Madeleine Minturn Albers '43 Student/Faculty Research Program in Education: established by Madeleine Minturn Albers '43. The Fund supports members of the education department in their collaboration with undergraduate students in education and with area schools to organize research programs designed to promote instruction to improve student development and learning.

The Anonymous Capital Endowment Fund: established and endowed through the generosity of an anonymous alumna of the Class of 1949 and her husband, to support the annual budget of the College.

The Anonymous Endowed Student Assistance Fund: created through the generosity of special friends of the Randolph-Macon Woman's College community, to provide direct assistance to students where there is financial need unmet by other resources.

The Anonymous Endowment Fund: established to provide for the preservation, maintenance, and future renovations of the President's home.

The Anonymous R-MWC Fund Endowment: established and endowed through the generosity of an anonymous alumna of the Class of 1966 to recognize the importance of the R-MWC College Annual Fund and its impact on the financial stability of the College. This Fund will provide assistance to the R-MWC Annual Fund on an annual basis.

The Anonymous R-MWC Annual Fund Endowment: established and endowed through the generosity of an anonymous alumna of the Class of '29 and her husband to support in perpetuity the R-MWC's Annual Fund.

The Anonymous Unrestricted Endowment: established and endowed through the generosity of an anonymous alumna of the Class of '29 and her husband to ensure the financial stability of the College.

The David F. Anthony Asian Studies Fund: created through the generosity of alumnae, family, and friends in memory of David F. Anthony, Charles A. Dana Professor of Asian Studies, Emeritus, to provide support for the College's Asian Studies program.

The John Baxter Atkins, Jr. Endowed Faculty Salary Fund: established in 1981 by Mrs. John B. Atkins, Jr., in memory of John Baxter Atkins, Jr., promotes a more competitive faculty salary program.

The Clara Cox Bell President's Fund: established by the late Mr. Davis Bell and Mrs. Clara Bell Gurkin '40, in honor of their mother, an alumna of the Class of 1903 and the first alumna trustee of the College.

The Carolyn Wilkerson Bell Visiting Scholar Program: established by the Sarah and Pauline Maier Scholarship Foundation, Inc., in honor of Professor Bell, alumna of the Class of 1965 and present faculty member.

The Helen Clark Berlind Symposium Fund: established by family and friends, in memory of Helen Clark Berlind of the Class of 1958 to provide funding for a symposium in conjunction with the College's Annual Exhibition of American Art.

The Inez Duff Bishop Annual Visiting Scholar in Politics Fund: established by a bequest from the aunt of an emeritus faculty member, Ernest Duff.

The John H. and Carlotta DeLong Blakemore Fund: named in honor of a former trustee of R-MWC and an alumna of the Class of 1935 and established through gifts from Mrs. Blakemore and family members.

The Isabel Boggs Research Fund: established through a bequest from Sybil Boggs '24 and named for her sister Isabel Boggs '24. The fund is intended to support a variety of academic initiatives within the Physics Department with preference given to undergraduate research, award for a physics major, maintenance of the physics lab, and support for faculty research.

The Frances Sample Bolton Faculty Development Fund: established by a bequest from Mrs. Bolton, mother of an alumna.

The Ruth Borker Initiative Fund for Women's Studies: established through a gift from Sally Schindel Cone '54, to encourage faculty in departments across the curriculum to integrate gender-related perspectives into the curriculum and to establish other programmatic initiatives which will advance an understanding of women's studies.

The Botanic Garden Endowment Fund: established through the efforts of Dorothy C. Bliss, Professor of Biology, Emerita, along with alumnae and friends to further develop, maintain, and preserve the R-MWC's Botanic Garden.

The Anne Richardson Brown '48 Annual Fund Endowment: established by Anne Richardson Brown '48 to support in perpetuity the R-MWC's Annual Fund.

The Mamie Jolley Bruce Endowment: established and endowed through the generosity of Mamie Jolley Bruce '44 to enhance the academic program and to ensure the financial stability of the College.

The Sallie Pinckney Cabaniss Library Fund: endowed by the estates of her daughters, Jane Cabaniss '22 and Bessie Cabaniss, in memory of their mother, Class of 1902.

The Katharine Stark Caldwell '74 Unrestricted Endowment Fund: established and endowed through the generosity of Mrs. Caldwell to ensure the financial stability of the College.

The John H. A. Campbell and Ruth Brooks Campbell Fund: established in 1964 by the bequest of Ruth Brooks Campbell '14 of Los Angeles, California, used in equal shares for scholarship and faculty salary purposes.

The W. Aubrey and Corrie Funai Chenault Library Fund: established by Marion Chenault Vick, an alumna of the Class of 1932, in memory of her parents to support the rare book collection in the Lipscomb Library.

The Catherine Barham Chilton Fund: established by Catherine Barham Chilton, an alumna of the Class of 1936.

The Class of 1918 Memorial Fund: an endowed fund, the gift of the Class of 1918, the income to be used for unrestricted purposes.

The Class of '55 Anonymous Faculty Fund: established to support a competitive faculty salary program.

The Class of 1958 Endowed Faculty Salary Fund: established in 1987 by an anonymous alumna of the Class of 1958 to support a more competitive faculty salary program.

The Class of 1961 Endowed Faculty Salary Fund: established in 1985 by an anonymous alumna of the Class of 1961 to support a more competitive faculty salary program.

The Robert B. Claytor/Norfolk Southern Fund: an endowment established by the Virginia Foundation for Independent Colleges to provide support for the libraries of VFIC colleges.

The Margaret Fitzgerald Cowett '53 Library Fund: established through the generosity of Margaret Cowett '53 for the acquisition of books, periodicals, and other materials for the Lipscomb Library in the fields of chemistry and physics.

The Susan H. Dabney Fund: supporting a distinguished scholars' program and established by gifts from Miss Dabney '15, members of her family, and friends.

The Elizabeth Dry Darden '57 Environmental Studies Fund: established through the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua P. Darden, Jr. to support the College's interdisciplinary major in environmental studies.

The Clara Willoughby Davidson Lecture Fund: honoring a former associate professor of religion and established by a gift from an alumna, Carolyn Pannill Franck '40.

The Katherine Graves Davidson Fund: established by Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilson Newman in recognition of the service to private higher education rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Davidson, Jr., to provide for an annual award to a full-time member of the faculty who has been outstanding in bringing distinction to the College.

The Hilda Forsberg Davis Fund: for support of the College's religious life program and established by a gift from an alumna of the Class of 1937 and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Hilseweck, in honor of an alumna of the Class of 1901, Mrs. John H. Davis.

The Sally Abrams Dean '70 Faculty Salary Fund: established through the generosity of Linda Koch Lorimer and Charles Ellis in honor of Sally Abrams Dean '70, to provide for a competitive faculty salary program.

The Sally Oglesby Disharoon Art Fund: endowed by the gifts of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie B. Disharoon and Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Merriwether in memory of a member of the Class of 1916. The income from this fund is to be used for maintenance and projects regarding the Maier Museum of Art.

The Barbara Sullivan Dixon '67 and Gene B. Dixon Faculty Salary Fund: established by Barbara and Gene Dixon to provide a more competitive faculty salary program.

The Mary Stahlman Douglas Library Fund: established by alumnae, family, and friends to honor a distinguished alumna of the Class of 1916.

The Mary Clark Roane Downing '37 R-MWC Annual Fund Endowment: established through Mrs. Downing's gift annuity in memory of Katherine Hogge Reed '37, to support in perpetuity the R-MWC Annual Fund.

The Dr. and Mrs. William F. Drewry and Elizabeth Drewry Gallalee Memorial Fund: endowed by the gifts of an alumna of the Class of 1918 and her late husband, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. McMullen.

The Ernest A. Duff Latin American Studies Fund: established through the generosity of the Inez Duff Bishop Charitable Trust, along with alumnae and friends, to honor and recognize the outstanding service of Professor Ernest A. Duff to R-MWC while providing support for the College's program in Latin American Studies.

The Jessie Ball duPont Faculty Salary Fund: provided by gifts from Mrs. A.I. duPont and the Jessie Ball duPont Fund.

The Mary E. Duren '30 Endowed Faculty Salary Fund: established by a bequest in 1987 from the late Mary E. Duren, an alumna of the Class of 1930.

The Suzanne Goodman Elson '59 Maier Museum of Art Acquisition Fund: established by Susie Elson, Trustee Emerita. The income from the fund will be used for acquisitions at the discretion of the Director of the Maier Museum of Art and the administration of the College.

The Jean Jackson Englander Memorial Fund: for faculty study and research, established by Mr. Clinton V. Englander in memory of his wife, an alumna of the Class of 1943.

The Faculty Development and Women's Studies Program Fund: established in 1986 by an anonymous alumna to give financial support to the initiatives to strengthen the faculty development program at R-MWC.

The Marie duVergne Robert Fisher '47 Faculty Salary Fund: established in 1985 by Mr. and Mrs. William W. Fisher, Jr., to support a more competitive faculty salary program.

The Carolyn Franck Annual Fund Endowment: established through the generosity of Carolyn Pannill Franck '40 to support in perpetuity the R-MWC's Annual Fund.

The Julia T. Gary Faculty Development Fund: established by Dr. Julia T. Gary '51 to assist faculty in pursuit of research and professional development.

The C. William Gibson, Jr. Memorial Lecture Fund: established by family, friends, and colleagues in memory of Clarence William Gibson, Jr., former trustee of the College, to attract speakers of outstanding accomplishment, national note, and prestige to the campus.

The Annie Moore Gignilliat '20 and Sarah Ruth Gignilliat Grubbs '50 Maier Museum of Art Acquisition Fund: created through a gift annuity by John L. Gignilliat in memory of his mother and cousin. The income from the fund will be used for acquisitions at the discretion of the Director of the Maier Museum of Art and the administration of the College.

The Mary Sabel Girard Teaching and Counseling Fund: established through the estate of Mrs. Girard to preserve and enhance the College's counseling services and its ability to respond to the emotional development of its students.

The Nancy Hays Gottwald Fund: named in honor of an alumna of the Class of 1955 and given by her husband, Mr. Bruce C. Gottwald.

The Gravely-Hampson Global Studies Fund: established through the generosity of Sadie "Puff" Gravely '41 and Robert J. Hampson in memory of Puff's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Gravely, to provide student opportunities for international travel and cross-cultural experiences.

The Gravely-Hampson Geography Fund: established through the generosity of Sadie "Puff" Gravely '41 and Robert J. Hampson to make possible the teaching of two or more courses in geography.

The Meredith Wilkinson Green '43 VPA Psychology Fund: established through the generosity of Ms. Green to support the participation of R-MWC students to present papers, posters, etc. at the annual meeting of the Virginia Psychological Association (VPA).

The Ruth Moncreiff Hall '29 Endowed Faculty Salary Fund: established by a gift from Mrs. Hall.

The Hamaker-Hynning Maier Museum of Art Acquisition Fund: established by Pierce and Carol Hynning Smith '66 to support acquisitions at the Maier Museum of Art and to recognize the long history of the Hamaker and Hynning Families with the College.

The Ray Parker and John Irving Hamaker Book Fund: for the purchase of books for the Lipscomb Library in the field of biology, established by contributions from former biology majors, members of the family, and friends, in memory of an alumna of the Class of 1912 and her husband, Professor of Biology and Physics from 1901 to 1945.

The Lucy Clair Harris Endowment Fund: established in 1983 by a trust created in the will of Lucy Clair Harris '43 of Atlanta, Georgia. The distribution from the trust is being used as needed to support the College's highest priorities.

The Betty Jo Denton Heick Annual Fund Endowment: established through a bequest of Betty Jo Denton Heick '45, to support in perpetuity the College's Annual Fund.

The Betty Jo Denton Heick Annual Symposium Endowment Fund: established through a bequest of Betty Jo Denton Heick '45 to support in perpetuity the College's annual symposium.

The Betty Jo Denton Heick Faculty Salary Fund: established through a bequest of Betty Jo Denton Heick '45, to support in perpetuity the College's faculty salary program.

The Sheldon and Chrystine Hicks Endowed Global Studies Fund: established by Michael P. Fitzgerald and Marilyn Hicks Fitzgerald '68, in honor of her parents, to support opportunities for students to travel and study abroad, as well as to support participation in cross-cultural experiences.

The Hilsweck-Ball Faculty Development Fund for International Study: established by Byrd M. and Alice Hilsweck Ball '61 to strengthen the international dimensions of the College's liberal arts curriculum and enable faculty to experience other cultures through international travel and study.

The Hilsweck Student/Faculty Collaborative Summer Research Fund: established by Helen McCarley Hilsweck '37 to support the College's summer research program, an intensive eight-week program for students and their mentors in all disciplines.

The Mary Fitzgerald Hogge Endowed Fund: established through the generosity of Kitty Hogge Reed '37 in memory of her mother. The income from this fund will be used to support the College's highest priorities each year.

The Harriet D. Hudson Fund: for faculty study and research, established by the Class of 1957.

The Lucy Somerville Howorth Fund for Women's Studies: for the purchase of books and materials related to the general subject of women's studies, established by a gift from an alumna of the Class of 1916, Mrs. Joseph M. Howorth, and her late husband.

The Jolley Faculty Development Fund: established through the generosity of the Jolley Foundation.

The Jolley Faculty Salary Support Fund: established through the generosity of the Jolley Foundation.

The Jolley Foundation Endowed Student/Faculty Collaborative Summer Research Program Fund: established through the generosity of the Jolley Foundation of Greenville, South Carolina, to endow the College's summer research program, an intensive eight-week program for students and their mentors in all disciplines.

The Helen and Ruffin Jones Global Studies Fund: established by Frances Jones Giles '65 and her sister, Helen Jones-Kerby, in honor of their parents, Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Ruffin Jones, to provide international travel and cross-cultural experiences for students and faculty.

The William R. Kenan, Jr. Fund: of $300,000, provided by the William R. Kenan, Jr. Charitable Trust. The income from this fund is to be used annually for support of the College's educational activities.

The Kennedy-Fitzgerald Visiting Professor Fund: provided by a gift from Stratford College.

The Alfred A. Kern Lectureship: named in honor of a beloved former professor of English and established by gifts from alumnae.

The Dorothy Orgill Kirsch '55 Faculty Salary Fund: established and endowed through the generosity of Dorothy Orgill Kirsch '55, to recognize and reward the exceptional efforts of our faculty through support of a more competitive faculty salary program.

The Rose Harris Preston Lafferty '21 Faculty Salary Fund: established in 1985 to provide for a more competitive faculty salary program.

The Muriel and John Landis Writing Program Fund: established to enhance the writing program at R-MWC.

The Gillie A. Larew Distinguished Teaching Award: provided by a gift from an alumna of the Class of 1916 and her husband, the late Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Wilson.

The Louise M. Lee Endowment: established through a bequest from Louise M. Lee, an alumna of the Class of 1930.

The S.E. Liles, Jr. Library Fund: an endowment established by the Virginia Foundation for Independent Colleges to provide support for the libraries of VFIC colleges.

The Herbert C. Lipscomb Library Fund: established for the purchase of books in the fields of interest of Dr. Lipscomb, former faculty member.

The E.H. Little Fund: established in appreciation for a gift from Edward H. Little.

The Linda Koch Lorimer R-MWC Annual Fund Endowment: established by Linda Koch Lorimer to support in perpetuity the R-MWC's Annual Fund.

The Carol G. Lovell Student/Faculty Collaborative Summer Research Program Fund: established through the estate of Ms. Lovell '63 to support the College's summer research program, an intensive ten-week program for students and their mentors in all disciplines.

The Maier Museum of Art Fund: endowed by the Sarah and Pauline Maier Scholarship Foundation, Inc., in memory of Mr. William J. Maier, Jr.

The William J. Maier, Jr. Library Fund: for library acquisitions in the arts and the humanities, endowed by Mr. Albert H. Gordon, Harvard classmate, in memory of Mr. Maier.

The Helen McGehee '42 Visiting Artist in Dance Program Fund: established through an anonymous gift in honor of Helen McGehee '42, Professor of Dance and Director of the Visiting Artist Program, Emerita.

The Carl H. and Frances M. McHenry Visiting Lecturers and Artists Fund: provided by gifts from the late Mrs. McHenry (Frances Major '19) and their two daughters, Mrs. Grant Thomas (Cornelia McHenry '46) and Mrs. James W. Wade (Mary McHenry '53). The annual income will be used to bring to campus an outstanding lecturer, artist, concert, or other special event to the R-MWC campus or Lynchburg community.

The McKenzie-Oast Family Library Book Fund: given in 1981 by Mr. and Mrs. R.B. McKenzie to honor their association with R-MWC through their daughter, Jean McKenzie Oast '53, and their granddaughters, Melissa McKenzie '77, Elizabeth S. Oast '78, Rena McKenzie Kimball '80, and Carolyn Oast '81.

The Eleanor Jones McNamara, Class of 1936, R-MWC Endowment: established in 1983 in honor of Eleanor Jones McNamara by the late Mr. Holt and Mrs. Yuille Holt, Jr., other members of her family, and friends both within the R-MWC family and in her profession in grateful appreciation of her friendship and service to the College.

The Robert Douthat Meade Library Book Fund: established by a gift from his wife, Lucy Boyd Meade '28.

The Maurice L. Mednick Fellowships: established by friends of Maurice L. Mednick. The income from this endowment is used for faculty research and is made possible through the support of the Virginia Foundation for Independent Colleges. A VFIC committee selects faculty recipients from member institutions for awards each year.

The Elva Mehaffey '38 Unrestricted Endowment Fund: established and endowed through the generosity of Mrs. Mehaffey to ensure the financial stability of the College.

The Adele Fitzhugh Michal Thanksgiving Book Fund: established by Mr. and Mrs. David H. Michal (Roberta Fitzhugh '48) in honor of their daughter, an alumna of the Class of 1974.

The Mabel Miller Athletic Fund: established by Mr. and Mrs. Dale N. Harkcom in memory of Mrs. Harkcom's sister for use in equipping and benefiting the athletic program.

The Madeline Miller '66 Faculty Salary Fund: established through the generosity of Linda Koch Lorimer and Charles Ellis in honor of Madeline Miller '66, to provide for a competitive faculty salary program.

The Emily Gill Mills '79 and Margot Holt Gill '52 Faculty Development Fund: established in 1985 to assist and encourage the faculty in their pursuit of research and scholarship in or related to their field of specialization.

The Charlotte Stephenson Oresman '41 Literary Magazine Fund: created by Roger B. Oresman, Trustee Emeritus, to provide additional resources for the production and enhancement of the College's literary magazine (Hail, Muse! Etc.)

The Outten Endowed Visiting Artists Program: established by Miss Helen Wolf in loving memory of her sister, Mary Jane Wolf Outten '27, to assist in promoting the Maier Museum and its efforts to obtain outstanding visiting artists and lecturers.

The Nellie Virginia Powell Chair in English: established through the estate of Miss Ruth Hines Temple '23, to support visiting professors or authors who may be of interest to the R-MWC student body.

The Lauren Eaton Prescott R-MWC Annual Fund Endowment: established by Lauren Eaton Prescott '69 to support in perpetuity the R-MWC's Annual Fund.

The President's Discretionary Fund: established by Mr. and Mrs. William F. Franck (Carolyn Panmill '40), to assist in providing a quality academic program through funding of special projects selected by the President of the College.

The Margaret Smith Ray '42 and John E. Ray III Endowed Fund: established by gifts from Mr. and Mrs. Ray, the income to be used for unrestricted purposes.

The Elinor Rigby Endowed Visiting Musical Artists Fund: established by Diana E. and John E. Herzog in memory of Mrs. Herzog's mother, Elinor Rigby. The fund will be used to attract musical artists and scholars to R-MWC for the benefit of students and the campus community, with preference given to pianists.

The Sara Ripy '46 R-MWC Annual Fund Endowment: created through the generosity of Dr. Sara Ripy to support in perpetuity the R-MWC Annual Fund.

The Andrew D. Roane Endowed Fund: established through a gift annuity by Mary Clark Roane Downing '37 in memory of her father, to support the highest priorities as determined by the administration of the College and the Board of Trustees.

The Lucy Cabell Roller Library Book Fund: given in memory of Miss Roller '19 by her sister, Elizabeth Roller Bottimore '23.

The E. H. Scott '36 Student/Faculty Fund: established through the generosity of the North Shore Foundation in honor of Miss Eugenia H. Scott '36, to provide support for summer study initiatives for students and faculty.

The Virginia Muller Shapard Faculty Salary Fund: established through the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Shapard III to support a more competitive faculty salary program.

The Louise J. Smith Art Fund, a bequest of $25,000 from Miss Smith, the first Director of Art of the College, to provide an endowment fund for the purchase of works of art.

The Margaret Ellis Smith '07 Faculty Salary Fund: established by Mr. and Mrs. John E. Ray, III (Margaret Smith '42) and named in honor of Mrs. Ray's mother, an alumna of the Class of 1907, to support a more competitive faculty salary program.

The Grace Rollins Snyder, M.D. '18 Classics Book Fund: established by a gift from her daughter, Ann Snyder Harrod, in memory of her mother who had a special interest in the classics.

The Grace Rollins Snyder '18 and Ann Snyder Harrod Mathematics Faculty Salary Fund: established by Ann Snyder Harrod, in memory of her mother, to support faculty salaries for members of the mathematics department.

The Sally Marie Spencer '84 Visiting Artist in Dance Program Fund: established through the generosity of Elizabeth Earle Kojaian '84 in memory of her classmate, Sally Marie Spencer '84, to provide support for the College's visiting artist program in dance.

The Steinlein-Shapard Secondary School Teacher Award: established by a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Shapard III (Virginia Muller '57), to recognize annually an outstanding secondary school teacher who had a significant impact on the life of an R-MWC student.

The Charlotte Daniels Stern Professional Development Fund: established by alumnae and friends in honor of Charlotte Daniels Stern, Charles A. Dana Professor of Romance Languages Emerita, as an honor award to recognize the distinguished scholarship and noteworthy endeavors of our faculty.

The Linda Brown Stephens '78 Annual Fund Endowment: established by Anne Richardson Brown '48 in honor of her daughter to support in perpetuity the R-MWC's Annual Fund.

The Lucy Durham Strickland '46 Unrestricted Endowment Fund: established through the generosity of Lucy Durham Strickland '46 to help ensure the financial stability of the College and to respond to the greatest current needs of the institution.

The Philip Thayer Endowed Library Fund: established through the estate of Mildred Burns, friend of Barbara Roles McKinnon '66, in memory of Philip Thayer, Theodore H. Jack Professor of History, Emeritus. The fund will support the acquisition of books and materials in the fields of history and religion.

The Philip Thayer Lecture Fund: established by family, friends, and colleagues in memory of Philip Thayer, Theodore H. Jack Professor of History, Emeritus.

The Catherine Ehrman Thoresen '23 and William E. Thoresen Computing Fund: established through the generosity of the Thoresen Foundation, to provide support for a campus-wide computing program, providing facilities, faculty, and curricular support in implementing new technology.

The Catherine Ehrman Thoresen '23 and William E. Thoresen Educational Initiatives Fund: established through the generosity of the Thoresen Foundation, to provide support for innovative curricular programming.

The Catherine Ehrman Thoresen '23 and William E. Thoresen Faculty Development/Sabbatical Fund: established through the generosity of the Thoresen Foundation, to support the continuing education and scholastic pursuits of the College's faculty.

The Catherine Ehrman Thoresen '23 and William E. Thoresen Fund: for speech and drama, established by Catherine Ehrman Thoresen '23 and her husband.

The Catherine Ehrman Thoresen '23 and William E. Thoresen Library Fund: established through the generosity of the Thoresen Foundation, to provide support for the College's computerized catalogue of holdings and its role as a partner in LION, the Lynchburg Information On-Line Network. Through LION, the College's resources are linked with Lynchburg College, Sweet Briar College, and the Lynchburg Public Library.

The Catherine Ehrman Thoresen '23 and William E. Thoresen Psychology Building Fund: established through the generosity of the Thoresen Foundation, to provide support for the annual operation of the Psychology Building.

The Nan V. Thornton Chemistry Fund: established by a bequest from Nan V. Thornton '15 and a former faculty member.

The Ethel Baker Tucker Maier Museum of Art Acquisition Fund: established by Mary Boettcher Anderson '43 in memory of her mother, Ethel Baker Tucker, to provide funding for acquisitions to enhance the Maier Museum of Art collection.

The Wahrenbrock Faculty Endowment Fund: established by Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Wahrenbrock.

The Peggy Penn Weitnauer '46 Student Foundation: established through the generosity of John H. Weitnauer, Jr., along with alumnae and friends, in memory of John's wife Peggy Penn Weitnauer '46. The goals of the Student Foundation are to educate students about the process of philanthropy and to support deserving groups within the R-MWC community.

The Mary Jean Wellford '48 Volunteer Leadership Award: established on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus A. Lindner by Mr. Lindner in honor of his bride, Mary Jean Wellford '48, to recognize a graduating senior who shows great promise of leadership as a member of the Randolph-Macon Woman's College alumnae body.

The Elizabeth Jordan Wilson '16 and Fred R. Wilson Faculty Endowment Fund: established in 1984 by bequests from Mr. and Mrs. Wilson of Swarthmore, Pennsylvania, to enhance faculty salaries through an endowment fund.

The Virginia Catching Wimberly Recital Hall Maintenance and Restoration Fund: created and endowed through the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. J. David Wimberly (Virginia Catching '58). Funds will be used for the maintenance and restoration of campus facilities, primarily Presser Recital Hall.

The Emily Abbitt Woodrum '61 Faculty Development Fund: established by Mrs. Woodrum to support the continuing education and research opportunities of the College's economics faculty.

The Virginia Hill Worden '69 Faculty Salary Fund: established through the generosity of Linda Koch Lorimer and Charles Ellis in honor of Ginger Hill Worden '69, to provide support for a competitive faculty salary program.

The Wyche – Burgess Family Endowment Fund: established by Mary Wyche Burgess '37 to help ensure the financial stability of the College and to respond to the greatest current needs of the institution.

The Zollinger Faculty Development Fund: established by Lucille G. Zollinger to support the continuing education and scholastic pursuits of the College's mathematics and economics faculty.

Scholarship and Aid Funds

Presidential Scholars Program

The Nichols Scholarship: A comprehensive scholarship awarded annually to one student with the highest academic and personal accomplishments. This scholarship includes tuition, room, board and a one-time $2,500 stipend for study abroad. Created through the generosity of Mary Davis Nichols '37 and John W. Nichols, Trustee Emeritus.

The Thaddeus A. and Mary Jean Wellford Lindner Scholars Fund: established by Mary Jean Wellford Lindner '48 and Tad Lindner to support a comprehensive scholarship for a student with outstanding academic and personal accomplishments.

The Gottwald Scholarship: Three full-tuition scholarships awarded annually to students who possess exceptionally strong academic and personal profiles. The award includes a one-time study abroad stipend of $2,500. Established through the generosity of Nancy Hays Gottwald '55 and Bruce C. Gottwald of Richmond, Virginia.

The Ball-Street Scholarship: A $13,500 scholarship awarded to one student throughout her four years at R-MWC. Alice Hilseweck Ball '61 and Betty Nichols Street '66, both of whom are active members of the R-MWC community, established the scholarship in honor of their mothers.

The Elizabeth J. and William R. Bruce, Sr. Memorial Scholarship: A $13,500 scholarship awarded to one student throughout her four years at R-MWC. Bruce Scholars are selected based upon extraordinary academic excellence and highest character. Preference will be given to members of Monumental United Methodist Church, Portsmouth, Virginia, and to residents of the Portsmouth, Virginia area. Established in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce, Sr. by their family.

The Marian V. Hummer Scholarship: A $13,500 scholarship awarded annually to one student with an exceptionally strong academic and personal profile. The scholarship is made possible through the generosity of Marian V. Hummer of Washington, D.C.

The Shaeffer Scholarship: A $13,500 scholarship awarded to one student throughout her four years at R-MWC. The scholarship was created through the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Shaeffer to honor their daughter and R-MWC alumna, Julia Parker Shaeffer '81.

The Agatha Boyd Adams Scholarship: in memory of a former trustee and alumna of the Class of 1915. Given by the Class of 1915.

The Ruth Jones Allison Scholarship: a gift from William M. Allison in memory of his wife.

The Alumnae Memorial Scholarships: for students with need and general promise.

The Alumnae Memorial Endowed Scholarship: established through a bequest of Miss Ellen Hawkins.

The American Clan Gregor Scholarship in Memory of Marion Virginia Magruder, Class of 1921: established by a bequest from Mr. John Kennedy Magruder to honor his sister, Marion Virginia Magruder '21. To be awarded to students who are deserving of it by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and financial need.

The Joan D. Anderson Prime Time Scholarship: in memory of an alumna of the Class of 1986 for deserving Prime Time students.

Corazon C. Aquino Scholarship: Awarded to international students from the Philippines and students who are of Filipino descent who have displayed an outstanding level of achievement. The award is renewable annually.

The Joseph Lamb Armstrong Scholarship: a scholarship to be awarded each year by the faculty of the Department of English to a deserving and needy student making English her major study.

The ASK International Scholarship: a gift from Ruth Willis Williamson '33 in memory of her parents. To be used to assist needy and deserving international applicants in the pursuit of a R-MWC education.

The Susie Grant Bain Scholarship: established by Mrs. Bain '14 and by her daughters, Frances Bain Heiner '41 and Sarah Bain Day '49. For deserving students needing financial assistance, with preference being given to Richmond and Tidewater students.

The Kathaleen Wright Baker '31 Scholarship: established by Kathaleen Wright Gray '31 to provide scholarships for women with an interest in mathematics.

The B.C. Baldwin Scholarship: in memory of a former trustee. Given by his family.

The Reeder Davidson Baldwin '33 Scholarship: established through the generosity of Mrs. Baldwin, her family and friends.

The Baltimore Chapter Memorial Scholarship: established by the Baltimore Alumnae Chapter and awarded annually to deserving students needing financial assistance.

The Jessie Banks Scholarship: a gift from Mrs. Jessie Banks Holloway '16.

The Mabel Barham Scholarship: named for an alumna of the Class of 1920. For a junior or senior from the Hampton Roads area. Given by members of the Hampton Roads Chapter of the Alumnae Association.

The Mary M. Barksdale Scholarship Established in Memory of Mildred F. Johnson '27: established through the estate of Mary Morton Barksdale '32. Income shall be used to provide a scholarship for an alumna of Randolph-Macon Woman's College pursuing graduate library study.

The Barton Heights United Methodist Church Scholarship: to provide a scholarship to a worthy United Methodist student in need of financial help.

The Beazley Foundation Scholarship: two scholarships available annually to outstanding Virginians who demonstrate financial need. Scholarships are funded by the Beazley Foundation through the Virginia Foundation of Independent Colleges and R-MWC.

The BB&T Scholarship: established by the former One Valley Bank of Lynchburg. Preference will be given to daughters of BB&T employees or female employees of BB&T, then to students from the Lynchburg area, then to students who are deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities or financial need.

The Louise Bowen Bennett '39 Scholarship: established by Mr. T. Waring Bennett, Sr., in honor of Louise Bowen Bennett, an alumna of the Class of '39. Preference will be given first to students who have expressed a special interest and intent to pursue a double major in biology and English, and then to students intending to major in biology.

The Pauline Morris Blair Scholarship: established through the estate of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Morris in honor of their daughter, an alumna from the Class of 1967.

The Clemmie Belle Bland and Richmond Bland Scholarship: established through the estate of Virginia Lucille Bland '21. Preference will be given first to students who are related to Clemmie Belle Bland and Richmond Bland; second, to a Virginia student; and third, to a Methodist student. If these preferences cannot be honored, the scholarship may provide financial assistance to another worthy student.

The David Strouse Blount Educational Foundation: to provide post high school aid for young people in the State of Virginia who qualify on the basis of need and educational attainment.

The Bernie D. Boardman Memorial Scholarship: endowed by Bernie Palfrey Robertson '18. To be awarded to a deserving student who needs financial aid.

The Catherine Lemon Bogese Scholarship: established by Stephen B. Bogese in honor of his wife '42.

The Isabel Boggs Scholarship: established through a bequest from Sybil Boggs '24 and named for her sister Isabel Boggs '24. Preference will be given to physics majors or students studying physics, who are deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and financial need.

The Bowman Scholarship: a gift of Genevieve Bowman Morrow '15, in memory of her parents, Oliver G. and Julia Bowman.

The Winifred Hill Boyd '44 Scholarship: established through the generosity of Mrs. Boyd. Preference will be given to students who are residents of Alabama or who are majoring in mathematics.

The Virginia Sweeney Braden Memorial Scholarship: established by her sister and brothers for deserving students needing financial assistance. Preference to be given to qualified students from Lynchburg, Virginia.

The Dorothy D. Brame Scholarship: established by Anne Jeter Ribble '26 in memory of Dr. Dorothy D. Brame '26. Preference will be given to students who are interested in a career in chemistry or medicine.

The Janice Martin Braselton and Henry Edward Braselton Scholarship: established through the generosity of Susan Braselton Fant '84 and Lester G. Fant III, in honor of Susan's parents, to provide scholarship assistance to deserving students with financial need.

The John H. A. and Ruth Brooks Campbell Scholarship: established by a bequest from Ruth Brooks Campbell '14, of Los Angeles, California. A scholarship to an incoming first-year student who has demonstrated outstanding academic achievement and has made a significant contribution to her school and community. The award is renewable each year based upon committee review.

The Emma Lear Broaddus Scholarship: named for an alumna of the Class of 1906. Gifts from her daughters, Ann Broaddus Gaul '44 and Susan Lear Broaddus '40.

The Anne Richardson Brown '48 and Linda Brown Stephens '78 Reading Scholarship: established by Anne Richardson Brown '48 in honor of her daughter, Linda Brown Stephens '78, for a student attending R-MWC's junior year abroad in Reading, England.

The Pearl Sydenstricker Buck '14 International Scholarship: created through proceeds from the 1998 New York gala of All Under Heaven, and named for Pearl Buck, a 1914 graduate of R-MWC and the first woman to receive the Nobel Prize for literature. Preference will be given first to international students from China and then to other international students.

The Floyd and Sarah Bullock Scholarship: the gift of Minnie Bullock Huston '27, in memory of her parents.

The Susie Turner Burge Scholarship: a bequest of Mollie C. Burge, in memory of her mother. For a deserving student on the basis of scholastic attainment.

The Virginia Friedrichs Burke Scholarship: established by Mr. and Mrs. G. Shelby Friedrichs, in honor of their daughter '59.

The Burton Scholarship: a scholarship for rising juniors or rising seniors who are doing exceptional work in Chemistry and are majoring in or have indicated an intention to major in Chemistry. A gift from Miss Una Burton '12.

The S. B. Bush Memorial Scholarship: established by Mrs. Bush (daughter, Karen Elizabeth Bush '66), in memory of her husband. For financial aid to students in need, with preference given to students from Tennessee.

The Helen Owen Calvert '93 Scholarship: established through a bequest from Helen Owen Calvert '93, with preference given to students who are deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and financial need.

The Helen Owen Calvert Writing Award: a prize awarded to the top entry in a writing contest sponsored by the Maier Museum and the English and Art Departments, to a first-year student whose submission is judged the most creative and/or academically superior. Established in memory of Helen Owen Calvert '93 by Dr. G. Edward Calvert and family.

The Ellen T. and Gilbert S. Campbell Scholarship: established by Virginia Campbell Woodford '41 and Audrey Campbell Lange '42, in memory of their parents.

The Elizabeth Anne Rogers Carlson, Class of 1945, Memorial Scholarship: established by Mr. Robert W. Carlson, in memory of his wife. Preference given to deserving students majoring in chemistry or mathematics needing financial assistance.

The Eugene B. Casey Honor Scholarship: established through a gift of the Eugene B. Casey Foundation in memory of Eugene B. Casey, father of Betsey Casey Metz '56. Preference will be given to students who are deserving of it by virtue of their potential for leadership, personal qualities, and promising academic record.

The Edna M. Chesney Honor Scholarship: established by a bequest from Edna M. Chesney '33, of Roanoke, Virginia. A scholarship to an incoming first-year student who has demonstrated outstanding academic achievement and has made a significant contribution to her school and community. The award is renewable each year based upon committee review.

The Susanne Price Clark Scholarship: established by Susanne Price Clark, an alumna of the Class of 1932.

The Class of 1912 Memorial Scholarship: given by the Class of 1912, in memory of the deceased members of the class.

The Class of 1918 Memorial Scholarship: to assist deserving students.

The Class of 1925 Memorial Scholarship: given by the Class of 1925, in memory of the deceased members of the class.

The Class of 1926 Memorial Scholarship: given by the Class of 1926, in memory of the deceased members of the class.

The Class of 1927 Memorial Scholarship: given by the Class of 1927, in memory of the deceased members of the class.

The Class of 1935 Memorial Scholarship: given by members of the Class of 1935, in memory of the deceased members of the class.

The Class of 1939 Endowed Scholarship: given by the Class of 1939 to provide scholarship assistance to deserving students needing financial assistance.

The Class of 1941 Honor Scholarship: established at their 50th Reunion by the Class of 1941 in memory of their deceased classmates.

The Class of 1950 Memorial Scholarship: given by the Class of 1950, in memory of the deceased members of the class.

The Class of 1957 Memorial Scholarship: established by Mr. and Mrs. C. Merrell Calhoun (Connie Anderson '57) in memory of deceased members of the Class of 1957.

The Class of 1958 Scholarship: given by the Class of 1958, to provide scholarship assistance to deserving students needing financial assistance.

The Class of 1973 Scholarship: given by the Class of 1973, to provide scholarship assistance to a senior needing financial assistance.

The Holly Miller Clingempeel Scholarship: established in memory of Holly Miller Clingempeel '81 by her husband, Elwood Clingempeel, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Miller, for students who are majoring in mathematics and are deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and financial need.

The William C. Conner Scholarship: the gift of Deborah Conner Norris '78, in honor of her father.

The Mildred Bullitt Converse Memorial Scholarship: provided by the will of Mildred Bullitt Converse '08.

The Mary Barnitz Cooper Scholarship: for an approved candidate for missionary work.

The Annie C. Corn Scholarship: a bequest from Mabel C. Corn, in memory of her mother, Annie C. Corn.

The David K. Cornelius Scholarship: established by alumnae, family, and friends, in memory of David K. Cornelius, Charles A. Dana Professor of English, Emeritus. Preference will be given to students who are deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and financial need who possess a special interest in Renaissance or 17th-century literature. The award may be in the form of a tuition scholarship or stipend for summer study.

The Alfred A. Kern/ Roberta D. Cornelius Scholarship: established by a bequest from Florence A. Van Wyck '31, of Gardiner, New York. A scholarship to be awarded annually by the faculty of the Department of English to an English major at the conclusion of her junior year. The student will be selected on the basis of both merit and financial need.

The Addavale Young Coslett Memorial Scholarship: the gift of her sons, Edward W. Coslett, Jr., and Harry Coslett, in memory of their mother, an alumna of the Class of 1913.

The Nan Atkinson Craddock '13 Memorial Scholarship: established by Anne Craddock Hammerstrom '42. Preference will be given to English and communication majors residing in Virginia who are deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and financial need.

The Jean F. Craig and Gillie A. Larew Scholarship: established through the generosity of Jean F. Craig '25 and in honor of Gillie A. Larew, dean of the College from 1948 to 1953.

The Jane Aurell Croft Scholarship: created to assist students who merit financial assistance attending R-MWC. Preference in the selection of Jane Aurell Croft Scholars is to be given to students who live on or near Port Tobacco Road, Charles County, Maryland. Other area nominees would be designated by Jane Aurell Croft, Russell Croft, Kent Croft or their assigns. The scholarship is awarded by the Director of Financial Planning and Assistance.

The Marnie Reed Crowell Summer Scholarship Award in Field Biology: established by Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Crowell (Marnie Reed '60) to be awarded to a biology major of promise with an interest in environmental concerns in the broadest interpretation and to be used by her in carrying out summer study at a field station.

The Elizabeth D. Darden Scholarship: a gift from Mrs. Elizabeth Dry Darden '57.

The Clara Davidson Scholarship: established by alumnae in memory of a former associate professor of religion, for deserving students needing financial assistance. Preference is given to students majoring in religion or philosophy.

The Maxwell Dudley Davidson '34 Scholarship: established through the generosity of Gene Davidson Dahmen '63 and Dr. Jesse T. Davidson, III, in honor of their mother, Maxwell Dudley Davidson, for her service and devotion to R-MWC. This scholarship is to be awarded to young women with a special commitment to the liberal arts and who are deserving of it by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and financial need.

The Sarah I. Davis Award in American Literature and American Studies: established by gifts from alumnae and friends to honor Professor Davis for her many contributions to the College. An annual prize will be awarded to a student submitting the best paper on a topic in American literature or American studies.

The Thomas N. and Mary Lancaster Davis International Scholarship: established by Mrs. Davis for deserving Chinese students with ability and need.

The Bettie Barker Delaplaine '52 First-Year International Scholarship: created through the generosity of Bettie Delaplaine for first-year international students who are deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities and financial need.

The Mary V. DeLong Scholarship: established by the Reverend C.L. DeLong, in memory of his sister.

The Eleanor Powell Dewey Scholarship: established by a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Dewey (Eleanor Powell Dewey '30), to encourage the matriculation of international students who are deserving by virtue of their academic record and personal qualities. Preference given to Asian students.

The Dickinson-Hammer Scholarship: established by Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Dickinson, in memory of Edith S. Garrett '23 and Ruth Key Dickinson '28 and in honor of Ruth Garrett Hammer '28 and Beverly Hammer Dickinson '57. The awards from the fund are to cover a meaningful and significant portion of the cost of an R-MWC education and to attract students with demonstrated academic promise, strength of character, leadership potential, and interest in a college committed to the education of women, academic excellence, and the liberal arts. The award shall be renewable each year based on committee review. To be eligible for review, the recipient will be required to maintain at least a 3.0 grade point average each year.

The Rosa van Gelder Dillard Scholarship: established by a gift from Mrs. David Hugh Dillard, to provide scholarships for deserving students needing financial assistance for the continuation of their education.

The Roxann Bassett Dillon Scholarship: a gift from Mr. J.E. Bassett, in honor of his daughter, Roxann Bassett Dillon, an alumna of the Class of 1955.

The Barbara Sullivan Dixon '67 Scholarship: established and endowed through the generosity of Barbara Sullivan Dixon '67 and Gene B. Dixon, Jr. Preference will be given first to students from Buckingham County, Virginia, then to other deserving students.

The Jo Ann Garland Dowell Scholarship: a gift from Dr. Glenn C. Dowell, Jr., in honor of his wife, an alumna of the Class of 1950.

The Edith Laine Dowling Scholarship: established by Dr. Harry F. Dowling, in honor of his wife, an alumna of the Class of 1927. For deserving students in need of assistance.

The Driver Family Scholarship: established by Martha Lou Miller Driver '50 and Albert W. Driver, Jr. for a student residing in the Westfield, New Jersey, area who has been offered and qualifies for scholarship or other financial assistance from the College.

The Driver Family Scholarship: endowed through the generosity of the Driver Family Foundation (Martha L. Miller Driver '50 and Sara Driver '77). Preference will be given to students living within a 100-mile radius of Mountainside, New Jersey, who are academically talented and show a seriousness of purpose.

The Andrew Horsley Easley and Anne Owen Easley Scholarship: established by the Andrew Horsley Easley and Anne Owen Easley Charitable Trust, to be awarded to students who need financial assistance.

The Eggleston-Plummer Scholarship: established by the bequest of Elizabeth Eggleston Brown '16, in memory of Josephine Eggleston Amis '16, Julia Plummer, Elsie Eggleston Beasley '20, and Elizabeth Eggleston Brown '16.

The Katherine H. Eichelbaum and The Susan E. Homestead Scholarship: established by Susan E.

Homestead. The scholarship will be awarded to a student in need of financial assistance who exemplifies the true spirit of Vita Abundantior from past performance and future potential.

The Louise S. Ehrich and William S. Adams Memorial Scholarship: established by Mr. Samuel H. Ehrich, in memory of his mother, to provide scholarship assistance.

The Rachael Trexler Ellis '44 Prize for Excellence in Art: established in memory of Rachael Trexler Ellis, a member of the Class of 1944, by Rear Admiral George F. Ellis, Jr. The prize will be awarded annually with preference given first to a graduating senior studio art major and then to a rising senior studio art major who is diligent and demonstrates the potential for outstanding artistic ability. The criteria for selection shall include inherent artistic talent, academic performance, perseverance, determination to develop as an artist and a demonstrated intention to pursue a career in the field of art.

The Kathryn McAllister England Scholarship: established by Elizabeth England Boynton, in memory of her sister '33.

The Myrtis Walcott England, Class of 1947, Memorial Scholarship: in memory of an alumna of the Class of 1947.

The Gertrude B. Farmer Scholarship: provided by a bequest from Mrs. Farmer '09.

The Maude Huff Fife Scholarship: a scholarship for a rising junior who best personifies R-MWC. A gift from William Fife in memory of his wife, an alumna of the Class of 1918.

The First Colony Life Insurance Company Prime Time Scholarship: established by First Colony Life Insurance Company of Lynchburg, Virginia, for Prime Time students who are deserving of it by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and financial need.

The Virginia Baldwin Morrel FitzSimons Scholarship: established by Virginia Baldwin FitzSimons '29 for deserving students in need of financial assistance.

The Meade T. and Bess Walkup Foster Scholarship: established through a bequest from Meade T. Foster and Bess Walkup Foster '20, with preference given to students who are deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and financial need.

The Lyn McWhirter Fraser '65 Prime Time Scholarship: established through the generosity of Lyn McWhirter Fraser '65 to provide scholarships for Prime Time students who would be unlikely to matriculate without assistance.

The Charles A. Frueauff Foundation Scholarships: a scholarship endowment administered by the Virginia Foundation for Independent Colleges. These scholarship awards are funded by the Charles A. Frueauff Foundation of Tallahassee, Florida, and are based on financial need, character and citizenship, and academic merit.

The Fred B. Fuqua Scholarship: for one or more deserving students needing financial assistance.

The Martha P. Fuqua Scholarship: established by Fred B. Fuqua, in memory of his wife, Martha Pettyjohn Fuqua '08.

The Almeda J. Garland Scholarship: established by the Class of 1971, other alumnae, and friends, to honor Almeda J. Garland, a member of the Class of 1926.

The Josephine Knox Gates Scholarship: a gift from her daughter, Marjorie Gates '25.

The Ann Broaddus Gaul Memorial Scholarship: a bequest from Mrs. Gaul's estate and gift from her sister's estate (Susan Lear Broaddus '40).

The Professor L. R. Geissler Family Scholarship: established by Virginia Geissler Noel '42 and her daughters, in honor of the Professor L. R. Geissler Family. To provide scholarships for deserving students who need financial assistance.

The Ann Grant Gerhardt Biology Scholarship: established through the generosity of family and friends in memory of Ann Grant Gerhardt, assistant professor of biology, emerita. Preference will be given to the most academically outstanding biology majors from the state of Virginia.

Lucille Puette Giles '33 Scholarship: established through a bequest from Lucille Puette Giles '33 for students deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities and financial need.

The Alice D. Gilliam '42 Scholarship: established through a bequest of Alice D. Gilliam '42.

The Given Foundation Scholarship: for outstanding students in need of financial assistance, who maintain high grade point averages.

The Helen and Mary Green Endowment Scholarship: a bequest from Helen and Mary Green, both of the Class of 1911. For financial assistance to needy and worthy students.

The William Walker Green Memorial Scholarship: established through the estate of Maylia Green Rightmire '28 in memory of her father, William Walker Green.

The Marie N. Grisard Scholarship: a prize awarded to the student showing the most promise in instrumental music. A gift from Mrs. Judith Jack Grisard Meldrum '40.

The Mattie Hundley Groves Scholarship: established by the Groves and Chaney families in memory of Mattie Hundley Groves, an alumna of the Class of 1916. Preference will be given first to students from Martinsville and Henry County, Virginia, who have expressed a special interest and intent to major in music. If these preferences cannot be honored, the scholarship may provide financial assistance to another worthy student.

The Evangeline Peters Gueco Scholarship: established by Frank D. Gueco, in honor of his wife, Evangeline Peters Gueco, a member of the Class of 1922. For deserving students in need of financial assistance.

The J. Dennett and Elizabeth DeLong Guthrie Scholarship: a scholarship to be awarded to students who have demonstrated academic promise, strength of character, and leadership potential and who are in financial need. Student applicants from Asian countries shall be given full consideration along with those from the U.S.A.

The Ruby Hagman Memorial Asian Studies Scholarship: awarded to a student who contributes to the campus community's understanding of Asian people and culture. In honor of Ruby Hagman, former medical missionary to China. Amount of scholarship varies annually.

The Rosina Blane Hall Scholarship: a gift from Carolyn Campbell Richardson, in memory of her mother, an alumna of the Class of 1942. Preference to be given to qualified students from Kentucky.

The Ruth Moncreiff Hall Scholarship: a gift from Mrs. Hall, a member of the Class of 1929. Awarded on the basis of need, and preferably to a math or Latin major.

The Nancy E. Lukens Hamilton Scholarship: named for an alumna of the Class of 1923. For needy students of outstanding ability.

The Corinne Hipple Hammond Endowment: established through the estate of Corinne H. Gray in memory of her mother Corinne Hipple Hammond '11 to provide scholarships for deserving students.

The Margaret Edmunds Hammond Scholarship: a gift from Elizabeth Holt Edmunds '18, in memory of her sister, an alumna of the Class of 1920.

The Martha Stockton Hancock Scholarship: created through the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Hancock, Jr. (Martha Stockton '50) for deserving students with financial need.

The William Henry Hardison Memorial Scholarship: a gift from Edith Hardison Walker '23, in memory of her father, William Henry Hardison. Students from Lewisburg, Marshall County, and Middle Tennessee to receive preference. Deserving students from other areas to be considered if no applicant from Tennessee is available.

The Rebecca Lamar Harmon Scholarship: established by the Rt. Reverend Nolan B. Harmon, Dr. G. Lamar Harmon, and Nolan B. Harmon, III, in memory of Rebecca Lamar Harmon, wife and mother, a member of the Class of 1916. For students needing financial assistance with preference given to the daughters of ministers.

The Janie Blackwell Harwood Scholarship: a gift from Waverley Harwood Harmon '19, in memory of her sister.

The Catherine I. Hastings Prize in Mathematics: created by Catherine I. Hastings in memory of her daughter, Catherine Hastings Carmichael '65, for an annual prize to an outstanding student majoring in mathematics.

The Catharine Kennedy Haynes '42 Scholarship: established through the generosity of her children and family in memory of Catharine Kennedy Haynes. Preference will be given to students from Asian and African countries who are deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and financial need.

The Harriet Ventress Heald Memorial Scholarship: named for an alumna in the Class of 1914 and given by Mr. Roy H. Heald and Mr. Charles G. Ventress. For a junior or senior who is majoring in mathematics or French.

The William Randolph Hearst Endowed Scholarship Fund: established through the generosity of The Hearst Foundation, Inc. for students of color.

The Kimberly S. Hegg Scholarship: established by family and friends, in memory of Kimberly

Stanton Hegg of the Class of '84 to provide scholarships for deserving students who need financial assistance.

The Betty Jo Denton Heck Scholarship Fund: established through a bequest of Betty Jo Denton Heck '45, to be used in support of a scholarship for deserving students with preference being given to any student from Kentucky.

The Martha Bell Gray Helms Scholarship: established by Grace Helms Hagedorn '51, in memory of her mother, Martha Bell Gray Helms '25. Preference is given to students in need of financial assistance from Bristol, Virginia; Washington, D.C.; or Wytheville, Virginia. In addition to the geographic preference, English and French majors shall be given special consideration.

The Mary Michelson Henderson '61 and Charles Henderson Scholarship: established through the generosity of Mary Michelson Henderson '61 and Charles Henderson for deserving students needing financial assistance.

The Rose Hesz Herzog Scholarship: established by Diana and John Herzog in memory of Rose Hesz Herzog, John's paternal grandmother, who immigrated to America from Budapest in 1914. Preference will be given to deserving students from Eastern Europe.

The Virginia C. and Albert M. Hill Scholarship: established by Sara Hill Lavelle '66 and Virginia Hill Worden '69 in honor of their parents. Preference will be given to students from third world countries who are deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities and financial need.

The Mary Grey Sears Holland Memorial Scholarship: given by the family of Mary Grey Sears Holland '34. Preference for deserving students from Appomattox County.

The Margaret Ford Hollowell Scholarship: established through a bequest from Margaret Ford Hollowell '28. Preference will be given first to qualified and deserving students from Greenbrier County, West Virginia, and then to students of the same caliber from other areas of the state of West Virginia.

The Houston Scholarship: established by Houston alumnae to provide scholarship assistance for students from the Houston area.

The Mary Z. Howard, Class of 1916, Memorial Scholarship: for students needing financial assistance.

The Annie Belle Winfree Hughes and Benjamin Edward Hughes Scholarship: in memory. For needy students of outstanding ability.

The Marian V. Hummer '19 Honor Scholarship: an award to a rising sophomore or junior who has made a significant contribution to the life of the College. Made possible by the generosity of Marian V. Hummer of Gaithersburg, Maryland.

The Minnie Bullock Huston '27 Scholarship: to be awarded to students who are deserving of it by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and financial need.

The Lillia Babbitt Hyde Scholarship: for deserving students enrolled in the regular curriculum of the College. A gift of the Lillia Babbitt Hyde Foundation.

The May Frances Tuttle I'Anson Scholarship: established by the Beazley Foundation, Inc., the Honorable Lawrence W. I'Anson, President, in memory of his wife '29. To be awarded to students needing financial assistance with a preference given to the daughter of a minister of the Virginia Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church.

The Janice Turnipseed Ikenberry Scholarship: established by Dr. Ernest Ikenberry in honor of his wife, a graduate of the Class of 1938, on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. Awarded to deserving juniors and seniors who have maintained a high grade point average during two undergraduate years of study at R-MWC and who are majoring in physics, history, or German studies.

The Anne Smith Jeter and James Garrett Jeter Scholarship: established through a bequest from Anne Jeter Ribble '26, in memory of her parents, Anne Smith Jeter and James Garrett Jeter. Preference will be given to students who are interested in a teaching career.

The Elizabeth Alsobrook Jibb Scholarship: a scholarship awarded to a rising sophomore who has achieved an outstanding scholastic record. Established by William Franklin Jibb in memory of his wife, Elizabeth Alsobrook Jibb '28.

The Rucker Tweedy Jolley Scholarship: a gift from Mamie Jolley Bruce '44, in memory of her mother. To provide scholarship assistance to deserving students with financial need.

The Frayser Jones Memorial Scholarship: established by Betty Green Webster '18, to assist deserving students.

The Mary Gibbs Jones Scholarships: for students of outstanding ability. A gift from Houston Endowment, Incorporated. Established by Mr. and Mrs. Jesse S. Jones.

The Mordecai and Martha R. Jones Scholarship: established by Mr. Harry T. Jones, Sr., in memory of his grandparents, and funded through the generosity of the Jones family to provide financial assistance for a direct descendant or other qualified student.

The Jeanie Jung Scholarship: established through a gift from Mrs. Jung (Jean Marie Harris '55).

The Mary Virginia Kagey Macon Bookshop Scholarship: originally established as The Macon Bookshop Scholarship for students of ability who need financial assistance and renamed in 1981 to honor the contributions to the R-MWC community of Miss Kagey '23 as Manager of the Macon Bookshop.

The Leah Wagenheim Kahnheimer Scholarship: a gift of appreciation to the College from Mrs. Kahnheimer '17.

The Patty Paxton Keebler Scholarship: in memory of "Patty" Paxton Keebler, an alumna in the Class of 1914. Established by her husband, Robert S. Keebler.

The Ellen Sheltman Kennedy Memorial Scholarship: established by her daughter, Constance Kennedy Moehlman '37, in memory of her mother. Preference to chemistry and physics majors.

The Kern Scholarship: a gift from Dr. Alfred A. Kern, in memory of his mother, Margaret Virginia Eskridge.

The Kilby Scholarship: a gift from Dr. and Mrs. Clinton L. Kilby.

The Susie Badger Kilham Scholarship: provided by the will of Susie Badger Kilham '12, for needy students of outstanding ability.

The John P. Kirby Explication Prize: established by contributions from The Explicator Foundation and friends of Dr. Kirby, former Chair of the English Department.

The John and Frances Kirby Scholarship: established by Mrs. John P. Kirby with preference given to students who are majoring in English and who are deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and financial need.

The William and Dorothy Orgill Kirsch Scholarship: established and endowed through the generosity of Dorothy Orgill Kirsch '55. Preference is to be given to students who are deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and financial need.

The David Donald and Louise Morgan Klous Scholarship: established through the estate of Louise Morgan Klous '35 for students who are deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and financial need.

The Florence H. Kluentner Scholarship: established by Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Schaefer III in memory of Florence Harvey Kluentner '09, former director of music at R-MWC.

The Jean Harris Knight '45 Scholarship: established by Jean Harris Knight, an alumna of the Class of 1945. Preference will be given to students from South Carolina who are deserving of it by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and financial need. If this preference cannot be honored, the scholarship may provide financial assistance to another worthy student.

The Janie Camm Kramer '42 Scholarship: established by family and friends in memory of Janie Camm Kramer, an alumna in the Class of 1942. Preference will be given first to students who have expressed a special interest and intent to major in classics and then to students intending to major in English.

The Lynne Coppage Land Scholarship: provides tuition, room, and field trip expenses for one student for summer study in architectural restoration at The Preservation Institute: Nantucket. Preference given to juniors and seniors with appropriate background and interest. A 3.0 average is required.

The Maureen Landis Honor Scholarship for Minorities: established by gifts from John W. and Muriel Souders Landis of Weston, Massachusetts, in honor of their daughter, Maureen Landis '67. This fund provides scholarships to incoming first-year students of Asian, Black, Hispanic, or Native American parentage who are deserving by virtue of their academic record and personal qualities.

The Mary Jane Daniell Langrall '42 Endowed Scholarship Fund: established through the generosity of the Newman's Own Foundation in honor of Mary Jane Langrall '42, niece of Joanne Woodward, for students of academic promise who have demonstrated financial need.

Theresa Stone Lazo '79 Reading Scholarship: created by Ms. Lazo for a student attending R-MWC's junior year abroad in Reading, England.

The Howard Levinson Scholarship: bequest from Hortense Harrison Levinson '18, in memory of her son. For students majoring in science.

The Elizabeth Dotterer Liebert, Class of 1951 Scholarship: established through the estate of Elizabeth Dotterer Liebert '51 with preference given to students majoring in history who are deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and financial need.

The Bernard Farrar and Sallie Wright Lipscomb Scholarship: a gift from Dr. Herbert C. Lipscomb, in memory of his parents.

The Frances Aaronson Lewis Honor Scholarship: established through the generosity of Frances and Sydney Lewis to provide honor scholarships for students who are deserving by virtue of their strong academic record and personal qualities. The award is renewable each year based upon committee review.

The Robert Lloyd Scholarship: established by alumnae and friends of the College, in honor of Robert Lloyd and his thirty-four-year tenure as Professor of Classics, Emeritus. Preference is given to students with a special commitment to the liberal arts who have an interest and facility for the field of classical studies.

The Linda Koch Lorimer 'HA Scholarship: established by the R-MWC Alumnae Association in honor of Linda Koch Lorimer, seventh president of the College and honorary alumna.

The William Franklin Lowance Memorial Scholarship: established in 1984 by a gift from his mother, Thelma Beckham Lowance '26, for an academically deserving student in need of financial assistance.

The Ivie Frost Lupton Endowed Scholarship: established through the generosity of Ivie Frost Lupton to provide scholarship assistance to deserving students with financial need.

The Luther Scholarship: awarded annually to a junior or senior with financial need who is a responsible, contributing member of the College community. Established in 1963 by Anne Luther von Rosenberg '62, and her mother, Mrs. William B. Luther.

The Martha Foster Madeley Scholarships: named for an alumna of the Class of 1932, and given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William N. Foster. For students of outstanding ability and promise.

The Maier Foundation Scholarship: established by the Sarah and Pauline Maier Foundation, Inc. to provide scholarship assistance to West Virginia students.

The Sara M. Maier Scholarship: named for an alumna in the Class of 1967. Established by the Sarah and Pauline Maier Scholarship Foundation, Inc., to provide scholarships for needy students.

The Elizabeth Marr Scholarship: a gift from Mr. and Mrs. R.M. Marr, in memory of their daughter of the Class of 1950.

Winston-Salem's Nancy Stockton Martin '24 Scholarship: established by the Winston-Salem Alumnae Chapter. Preference will be given, first to students who are from Winston-Salem, then from the State of North Carolina.

The Lee Brammer May '80 Memorial Scholarship: established in 1984 by the family of Lee Brammer May with preference given to women who are deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and demonstrated financial need.

The Gertrude Lewis McCall Scholarship: established by friends in the Nashville Alumnae Chapter, to honor an alumna in the Class of 1929 who gave outstanding leadership in alumnae affairs and Christian service to the worldwide community.

The Maude King West McConnell and Thelma Remington Holloway Scholarship: a bequest from the estate of Edith Woodfin West '19, in memory of her sisters, Maude King West McConnell '14 and Thelma Remington West Holloway '16.

The McDonald-Lachicotte Scholarship: established by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Lachicotte, Jr. (Martha McDonald '57) for students from the state of South Carolina who possess a special commitment to the liberal arts.

The Mary McKenry '24 Memorial Scholarship: established by Reverend John A. McKenry, Jr., in memory of Mary McKenry '24, with preference to students who are members of the Court Street United Methodist Church located in Lynchburg, Virginia.

The Ailene Wood McMinn Scholarship: a scholarship awarded to the junior who has been most outstanding in campus leadership and service to the College and who has a good academic record. In memory of Ailene Wood McMinn '45. A gift from her husband, Mr. Jack H. McMinn, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Wood.

The Frances Drewry McMullen Memorial Scholarship Fund: created in memory of Frances Drewry McMullen '18, by her daughters, Dr. Betty A. Little and Martha F. McMullen, and her grandchildren, Dan Drewry McMullen and Dr. Heather Frances McMullen. Preference will be given first to students studying journalism and then to applicants studying psychology.

The Robert Milroy McKey Scholarship: a gift from Mr. Tom Huston and his wife Minnie Bullock '27, in memory of a friend of R-MWC.

The Nannie Ames Mears '15 Scholarship: established by a bequest from Nannie Ames Mears '15, to provide scholarships for students from the eastern shore of Virginia in either Accomack County or Northampton County.

The Middle Tennessee Scholarship: established by the alumnae in the Nashville area.

The Janet Westbrook Miller Scholarship: established by Audrey Bolinger Westbrook '28, in memory of her beloved daughter, Janet Westbrook Miller '54. Preference will be given in awarding the scholarship to women from the southern United States with an interest in mathematics.

The Angela C. Milne Scholarship: established by Lawrence Milne, in memory of his wife, a member of the Class of 1933.

The A. P. Montague, Jr. and Laura Brent Montague Bristow '38 Scholarship: created through the estate of A. P. Montague, Jr. to provide scholarships for students from Lynchburg, Virginia, in need of financial assistance.

The J. Kenneth Morland Award: a cash prize awarded by the faculty of the Department of Sociology/Anthropology to recognize an original student research project of exceptional quality. A gift from alumnae majors in honor of J. Kenneth Morland, chair of the Department from 1953 - 1987.

The Ann Lindner Morrison Honor Scholarship: an award with preference being given to a rising junior or sophomore who has made special contributions to the life of the College. A gift from Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus A. Lindner (Mary Jean Wellford '48) in honor of their daughter, an alumna of the Class of 1983.

The Merle Holloway Mortimer Scholarship: a gift from Mr. Harold E. Mortimer, in memory of his wife, an alumna of the Class of 1928.

The Lizinka Brown Mosley Memorial Scholarship: created and endowed through the generosity of Lizinka "Zinkie" Mosley Benton '62, in memory of her mother, for students who are deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and financial need.

The Mildred B. Munday Scholarship: established through a bequest of Dr. Mildred B. Munday, Class of 1940.

The James Wardlaw and Cleo Ross Wilson Murphy Memorial Scholarship: for a sophomore, junior, or senior with preference to be given to an outstanding student in classics. Given by E. Catharine Murphy '13, in memory of her parents.

The Myers Scholarship, Funded by Martha Myers Smith '38 In Honor of Emily Myers Clingman '35 and In Memory of Mildred Myers Caperton '38: for deserving students in need of financial assistance.

The Patsy Terry Nance Endowed Scholarship Fund: established through the generosity of Dr. and Mrs. F. Carter Nance. The scholarship will be awarded to currently enrolled, returning student(s) who are deserving by virtue of their promising academic record, personal qualities and demonstrated financial need, especially those students who find themselves in need because of changed family circumstances.

The Anne Duncan Walker Niver '49 Memorial Scholarship: a gift from Edith Hardison Walker '23, in memory of her daughter, with preference given to worthy students from Virginia who need assistance.

Northern Delaware Area Scholarship: a scholarship awarded to the most academically outstanding entering first-year student from the state of Delaware, or from specified areas in Pennsylvania near Wilmington, Delaware.

The James P. Olivere Scholarship: created through the generosity of Mary Claire Dothard Olivere '66, along with family and friends, to honor the memory of her son, James, a young man known for his outstanding quality of friendship and compassion.

The OM Scholarship: also known as The Old Maid Scholarship, this fund was established through the generosity of Jane M. Schnell '52 and other alumnae in memory of The Old Maid, the first humor magazine published by a women's college in the United States. Preference will be given to women from Eastern Europe who are deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and financial need.

The Charlotte Stephenson Oresman '41 Prize for Humor in Writing: created by Roger B. Oresman, Trustee Emeritus, to provide an annual prize to an outstanding student submitting the manuscript which incorporates the finest elements of humor.

The Nancy and Hansi Dee Orgain Scholarship: a gift from their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Orgain, Jr., in honor of Nancy '71 and Hansi Dee '74.

The Lelia Seabury Drewry Owen Scholarship: a gift from Frances Drewry McMullen '18, in memory of her sister, Lelia Seabury Drewry '25. Preference will be given to students who are deserving on the basis of their academic ability and who are in need of financial assistance.

The Grace Benedict Paine Scholarship: established in memory of Thomas F. Paine, Jr., husband of Grace Benedict Paine '40, by Mr. and Mrs. John W. Barton, Jr., Grace Benedict Paine and her children, Thomas F. Paine, George C. Paine, II, Grace P. Terzian, and Anne Benedict Paine. Preference will be given to students from Tennessee who are deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and financial need. If this preference cannot be honored, the scholarship may provide financial assistance to another worthy student.

The Constance Elder Palmer Memorial Scholarship: established by John A. Palmer, III, in memory of his mother, Constance Elder Palmer '03. For deserving students in need of financial assistance.

The Celestia S. Parrish Scholarship: for a Lynchburg student approved by the Lynchburg Chapter of the Alumnae Association. In honor of a former distinguished professor of philosophy and pedagogy.

The Edward A. Penick Award for Excellence in Religion: established by family, friends, and former students in memory of Edwin A. Penick, Professor of Religion, Emeritus.

The Emily Wood Penn '34 Memorial Scholarship: established in 1989 by her husband, Austin E. Penn, and their children, Ann W. Penn, Carol Penn Tippett, Richard E. Penn, and Susan Penn Lamotte, to provide scholarships for young women with a special commitment to the liberal arts, and particularly the field of mathematics.

The Mary Bell Perkins Scholarship: named for an alumna of the Class of 1897 and given by her three children, Mr. William R. Perkins, Jr., Mr. Thomas L. Perkins, and Mrs. Clark N. Barton.

The Sidney Perlberg Scholarship: for a student who is deserving by virtue of her record, personal qualities, and financial need.

The Irene Graham Pilcher Perrow '26 Scholarship: established by a bequest from Miss Edith Cornelia Perrow, in honor of Irene Graham Pilcher Perrow '26.

The Mary Jane Crowell Peterson '39 Scholarship: established and endowed through the generosity of Mary Jane Crowell Peterson '39. Preference will be given to young women in need of financial assistance who have demonstrated academic strength and possess qualities of strong leadership and good citizenship.

The Gerdena Pettit Scholarship: established through the generosity of Isabelle Pettit Rucker '39 for students deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and financial need.

The John P. Pettyjohn Scholarship: for a graduate of the E.C. Glass High School of Lynchburg. Given by Mr. Pettyjohn, in memory of his wife, Alice Bell Watts Pettyjohn.

The Pettyjohn Scholarship: a gift from members of Mr. John P. Pettyjohn's family.

The Lucy Niles Pope Scholarship: a gift from Mr. Barton Pope, in memory of his mother. For deserving students majoring in art who have financial need.

The Nancy Shelton Pope Scholarship: a gift from Mr. Gordon A. Pope, in memory of his wife, an alumna of the Class of 1938. For Lynchburg area students.

The Isabella J. Prather Scholarship: established by Mrs. Philip H. Sanders (Isabella Prather '27) with preference given to a student in need of financial assistance from the State of Texas.

The Barbara Woolman Preston Scholarship: established by her husband, Samuel W. Preston, Jr., in honor of his wife, Barbara '42, and his daughter, Susan '72. Preference is to be given to deserving students from the State of Georgia in need of financial assistance.

The Florence C. Quinby Scholarship: provided by the will of Mrs. Quinby.

The Fanny Chaplin Rawles Scholarship: established through the bequest of Mary Rawles Spurbeck

'19 and John S. Spurbeck, in memory of Mrs. Spurbeck's mother, Fanny Chaplin Rawles. Preference given to students majoring in biology.

The D.J. and Molly Geise Ray Scholarship: a gift from their daughters, Bessie Ray Taber '03, Mrs. Howard C. Jones, Rushie Ray Lewis '08, Molly Ray Respass '11, Elma Ray Wilhoit '10, and Mrs. Frank T. Ray, Sr.

The Reader's Digest Foundation Scholarship: for deserving students needing financial assistance.

The Reading Scholarship: established by alumnae, parents, and friends for a student attending R-MWC's junior year abroad program in Reading, England, who is deserving by virtue of her academic record, personal qualities, and financial need.

The Sue Ann Thomas Reagan '47 Memorial Scholarship: created through a bequest of Sue Ann Thomas Reagan for deserving students in need of financial assistance.

The Ruth Diehl Rhodes '39 and Howard W. Rhodes, Jr. Scholarship: established by Ruth Diehl Rhodes '39 and Howard W. Rhodes, Jr., with preference given to students who are deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and financial need.

The Riggs Foundation Scholarship: a gift of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Cress (Lelia Riggs '58) and Mr. and Mrs. Hayes C. McClerkin (Lillian Riggs '58), to be awarded to deserving students needing financial assistance.

The Margaret Colbert Riley '37 Scholarship: established and endowed through the generosity of Margaret Colbert Riley '37. Preference will be given to deserving students with a special commitment to the liberal arts, especially those pursuing disciplines in the humanities or social sciences.

The Roanoke Chapter Scholarship: for a student from Roanoke, Salem, or Roanoke County.

The Bernie Palfrey Robertson Scholarship: established in 1984 by a bequest from Bernie Palfrey Robertson '18 with preference given first to students from the Alexandria, Louisiana, area; second, from the central Louisiana area; and third, from the State of Louisiana.

The Wilbourne Thomas Robinson, Jr. Memorial Scholarship: established in 1984 by Mr. Robinson's wife, Joyce C. Robinson, and daughters, Frances Robinson Snipes '82 and Florine Robinson Brown, to be awarded to a woman who is in need of financial assistance and is a student of the liberal arts.

The Helen Martin Rodgers Scholarship: established by Joseph M. Rodgers, in honor of his wife, a member of the Class of 1956.

The Stephanie Rose Memorial Scholarship: gifts from the parents and friends of an alumna, Class of 1972.

The Aline Beville Rudasill '16 Scholarship: established by the Richmond Alumnae Chapter in honor of Aline Beville Rudasill '16. Annual income in the amount of $1,250 will be used to fund a non-renewable scholarship to any R-MWC student to participate in an internship in the Richmond area. The remaining income shall be awarded to a Richmond area student who is academically talented and has demonstrated financial need.

The Dorothy Foster Russell Endowed Business Scholarship Fund: established through a generous gift from Mrs. Russell. Preference is for juniors and seniors who are majoring in a business-related field and who plan to work in the business arena upon graduation.

The Rae and Ben Schewel Memorial Scholarship: established in memory of Rae and Ben Schewel by Helene Parish Schewel '47 and Bertram Schewel, as a perpetual reminder of their great love for this community and of the distinguished tradition of service which the Schewel family has given to R-MWC. Preference is to be given to students who plan to major in economics or communication, from Lynchburg, the local area, and the State of Virginia.

The Louise Stradley Sharitz and the Otto Sharitz Scholarship: provided by Louise Stradley Sharitz '20, in memory of her husband, Otto Sharitz, to be awarded to deserving students needing financial assistance.

The Almar H. Shatford Memorial Scholarship: a gift from Mrs. Shatford, in memory of her husband.

The Minor Mickel Shaw Scholarship: established through the Daniel-Mickel Foundation of Greenville, South Carolina, in honor of Minor Mickel Shaw, Class of 1969.

The Edith Cockey and Ralph M. Sheridan Scholarship: a gift from Mrs. Ralph M. Sheridan.

The Dr. Homer H. Sherman Memorial Scholarship: preference given to the daughters of Methodist ministers, daughters of teachers, and others in need. A gift from his daughters, Lucile Sherman Sewell '20 and Dr. Elizabeth B. Sherman '20.

The Dr. Mary Sherrill Scholarship: established under the will of Margaret A. Godbey '14 for an academically deserving student who needs financial assistance.

The Mary Lura Sherrill Scholarship: given by the Massachusetts State Alumnae Chapter, in memory of Mary Lura Sherrill '09.

The Christine Redman Shibley Scholarship: established through a bequest from Christine Redman Shibley, an alumna in the Class of 1926, for students who are deserving by virtue of their academic record, character, and financial need with preference given to students from Dyer County, Tennessee.

The Helen Claire Rosenstihl Smith Scholarship: established by a bequest from Helen Claire Rosenstihl Smith '27. For needy and deserving students from Alabama, with preference being given to students from Bullock County.

The Sara Landis Smith '87 Scholarship: a gift from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert R. Smith (Mary Jane Kolp '58). For deserving students in need of financial assistance with preference given to students from Texas.

The Bessie Snead Scholarship: established through the generosity of Linda Koch Lorimer and Charles Ellis in honor of Bessie Snead, retired Executive Assistant to the President and Secretary to the Board of Trustees. Preference will be given to students from rural communities within the state of Virginia.

The John S. and Mary Connally Spalding Scholarship: established by Constance Spalding Anderson, Class of 1927, in memory of her parents, to provide scholarships for deserving students in need of financial assistance.

The Martha Crocker and Robert Atwood Spivey Scholarship: established by the Alumnae Association in recognition of the Spiveys' service to the College during his presidency. The Association has designated that preference be given to students who are deserving by virtue of academic record, personal qualities, and financial need.

The Robert A. and Martha Crocker Spivey Scholarship for Minority Students: Established by a gift from Elliot S. Schewel, trustee emeritus, and Rosel Hoffberger Schewel, of Lynchburg, Virginia, in honor of the sixth president of R-MWC and his wife, alumna of the Class of 1954. This fund provides one or more scholarships ranging from $2,500-$5,000 to students of color who are deserving by virtue of their academic record and personal qualities. The award is renewable based upon committee review.

The Lide Spragins Scholarship: Established by the Dallas Chapter of the R-MWC Alumnae Association in memory of Lide Spragins, Class of 1910. A scholarship awarded to a Dallas student and based upon high scholastic ability, all-around excellence, and promise.

Genevra Wilkinson Staker Scholarship: for a student from Cabell County, West Virginia, who has demonstrated significant academic achievement and good citizenship and has made major contributions to the life of her community.

The Lura Lee Cannon Stephens '11 Prize in History: established by Mr. and Mrs. Bart N. Stephens (Barrett Krausz '45). A prize to be awarded annually to a student of promise majoring in history.

The Carl Stern Scholarship: established by alumnae and friends, in honor of economics professor Carl Stern who retired in 1992 after a forty-year tenure at the College. Preference will be given to students in need of financial assistance who possess a strong interest in the field of economics.

The Mary B. Stokes Memorial Scholarship: gifts from the Class of 1922 and friends.

The Clara McKay Stone Scholarship: provided by the will of Charles H. Stone, in honor of his wife, an alumna in the Class of 1906.

The Queena Stovall Scholarship: in memory of a prominent local folk artist for deserving students needing financial assistance. Established by gifts from her family and friends.

The Dorothy Mathews Stratton '47 Memorial Scholarship: established by the family, friends, and the Boston Chapter of the Alumnae Association. Preference will be given to students from the Boston area who are deserving on the basis of academic ability and financial need.

The Shirley W. Strickland Award: a cash prize awarded each year by the faculty of the Department of Sociology/Anthropology to the outstanding rising junior or rising senior majoring in sociology and anthropology. A gift from alumnae majors in honor of Shirley W. Strickland, Class of '45, professor of sociology and anthropology for 31 years.

The Eleanor Struppa Scholarship for the Arts and Classics: a gift of the Class of 1920, in honor of Eleanor Struppa '20.

The Laura Geisel Sullivan M. D. '74 Scholarship: created through the generosity of Drs. Jerome and Laura Sullivan. Preference will be given to young women who are United States citizens and who have a strong desire to attend medical school. Recipients should be deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, good citizenship and leadership, and by their financial need.

The Surdna Scholarship: for deserving students needing financial assistance.

The Jane Clay Sutherland Memorial Scholarship: for deserving students in need of financial assistance. This fund was established by the Executive Committee of the R-MWC Alumnae Association, in memory of Jane Clay Sutherland '42, through gifts from her family, alumnae, and friends.

The Mary Broughton Taylor '30 Scholarship: established by Robert B. Taylor in memory of his wife Mary Broughton Taylor '30. Preference will be given to juniors and seniors who are majoring in classics, English, music, or religion.

The A. L. and Mary Miller Temple Scholarship in English: established through the estate of Miss Ruth Hines Temple '23. Recipient shall be a Randolph-Macon Woman's College student, majoring in English, maintaining a 3.75 grade point average on a 4.0 scale, and chosen by the College.

The Ruth Hines Temple Scholarship in Art: established through the estate of Miss Ruth Hines Temple '23. Recipient shall be a Randolph-Macon Woman's College student, majoring in Art, maintaining a 3.75 grade point average on a 4.0 scale, and chosen by the College.

The Ruth Hines Temple Scholarship in Creative Writing: established through the estate of Miss Ruth Hines Temple '23. Recipient shall be a Randolph-Macon Woman's College student, majoring in Creative Writing, maintaining a 3.75 grade point average on a 4.0 scale, and chosen by the College.

The Theatre Scholarship: a scholarship for a sophomore, junior, or senior majoring in theatre whose academic achievement and contributions to the Department are of special merit. Funded through the Department of Theatre's Openers Club. Amount of scholarship may vary annually.

The Ethel McWhorter Thompson Memorial Scholarship: a gift of Mr. Edward F. Thompson, in memory of his wife, a member of the Class of 1930.

The Catherine Ehrman Thoresen '23 and William E. Thoresen Scholarship: established and endowed through the generosity of the Thoresen Foundation, to provide financial assistance to young women who are deserving by virtue of their academic record and personal qualities.

The Mary Lee Tillet Memorial Scholarship: a scholarship for a sophomore who has a distinguished academic record and has contributed to the life of the College. Established by the Alumnae Association (with gifts from alumnae and friends) in memory of Miss Tillet '30, a former Director of Admissions.

The Anne L. Tolbert Scholarship: named for an alumna of the Class of 1985. For a member of the senior class deserving of it by virtue of her academic record, personal qualities, and financial need. A gift from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Tolbert.

The Marie Lanning Tompkins Scholarship: a gift from Frances Drewry McMullen '18, in memory of her classmate.

The Brantley Richardson Townes Scholarship: established by Susan Collier Braselton '84 and Anne Elisabeth Braselton '87, to provide scholarships for deserving students who need financial assistance.

The United Methodist Scholarships: for Methodist students who are active in their own churches, have maintained a good academic record, and need financial assistance.

The United Parcel Service Scholarships: a scholarship endowment administered by the Virginia Foundation for Independent Colleges. These scholarship funds are provided annually from the income of the UPS Endowment held by the Foundation for Independent Higher Education. These awards are based upon financial need and academic merit.

The Virginia Conference United Methodist Scholarships: to provide assistance for Virginia Conference young people with preference being given to the daughters of Virginia Conference Methodist ministers.

The Ruby R. Vale Foundation Scholarship: established through the generosity of the Ruby R. Vale Foundation to provide scholarships to deserving students who need financial assistance.

The Nancy Nimmcke Van Duyne '49 Memorial Scholarship: established through a gift by Robert Van Duyne, in memory of his wife. For a sophomore, junior, or senior who has maintained a B grade average.

The Manning C. Voorhis Scholarship: established by Rosa Carter Voorhis and Lynchburg friends. For a deserving student needing financial assistance.

The Charlotte Wagner '36 Scholarship: created through the estate of Miss Wagner in support of the College's scholarship program.

The Joanna Suttle Walker Memorial Scholarship: established by family, friends, and classmates, in memory of Joanna Suttle Walker, an alumna in the Class of 1963. Preference will be given to students who are deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and financial need.

The Jeanne Swinney Wallace Scholarship: established by Mrs. Wallace of the Class of 1935, for deserving students needing financial assistance.

The Susan Horine Warden '46 Memorial Scholarship: established by Betty J. Keirstead, in memory of her sister-in-law and classmate of the Class of 1946.

The Greater Washington Area Alumnae Chapter Scholarship: established by gifts from Greater Washington area alumnae, to provide funds to be awarded annually to an entering first-year student from the Greater Washington, D.C. area, who has achieved academic excellence and has exhibited leadership potential throughout her educational career while requiring financial assistance from the College.

The Jean Hughes Waters Scholarship: a gift from her mother, Mrs. John Bell Hughes. For a mathematics major who is deserving by virtue of her academic record and financial need.

The Lee Garrett Weatherall Scholarship: established through the generosity of Dianne Davis, friend of the College, in memory of her nephew.

The Dr. and Mrs. William Alexander Webb Memorial Scholarship: the gift of their daughter, Carolyn Webb White '25, in memory of her parents.

The Lettie Pate Whitehead Foundation Scholarships: established by a grant from the Lettie Pate Whitehead Foundation for deserving students from the South who need financial assistance and are interested in pursuing a career in medical technology.

The Margaret Bright Whitehouse '41 Scholarship: established and endowed through the generosity of Margaret Bright Whitehouse '41, in memory of Dr. Clement French, former academic dean and chair of the R-MWC Chemistry Department. Preference will be given to students with a special interest in chemistry.

The Annie C. Whiteside Scholarship: established by friends in the Nashville Alumnae Chapter, to honor an alumna in the Class of 1910, beloved by R-MWC students through many years of devoted service as friend and long-time registrar of the College.

The Margaret F. Williams Scholarship: established under the will of Miss Williams. Preferably for, but not limited to, students from the City of Lynchburg.

The Ruth Willis Williamson '33 Reading Scholarship: established by Mrs. Williamson. Preference will be given to students who are attending R-MWC's junior year abroad program in Reading, England, who are deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and financial need.

The Grace Taylor Wiltshire HA Award: for meritorious achievement in biology. An award for the graduating biology senior who has achieved the highest quality point ratio in biology. Funded and endowed through the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Wiltshire, Jr., (Grace Taylor Wiltshire HA).

The Grace and James Wiltshire Scholarship: established through the bequest of Mary T. Waters, sister of Grace Wiltshire. Preference given to students majoring in biology.

The Virginia Catching Wimberly Music Scholarship: created and endowed through the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. J. David Wimberly (Virginia Catching '58). Preference will be given first to music majors and then to young women who are considering a major in music who are deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and financial need.

The Wise Scholarship: established by Mr. and Mrs. H.L. Lancaster, Jr. (Margaret Spigner Lancaster '49) in memory of Pearle Wise Spigner '13, Edna Wise Davis '16, and Henry A. Wise. Preference will be given to first-year students who are deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal character, and financial need. The scholarship is renewable under the same criteria.

The Elma C. Witcher Scholarship: established by Mrs. John F. Hoffmeister, Jr., in memory of her sister of the Class of 1921.

The Isabella Waugh Woods Memorial Scholarship: a gift of Mrs. Philip K. Sanders (Isabella J. Prather '27), in memory of her maternal grandmother, Mrs. James Pembroke Woods. Preference will be given to women who are deserving by virtue of their academic record, personal qualities, and demonstrated financial need.

The Elizabeth Eley Wright Scholarship: established by the Tidewater Alumnae Chapter and friends in the area, in honor of a beloved and distinguished member of the R-MWC faculty and of the Class of 1913.

The Sallie A. Wright Memorial Scholarship: a bequest from Elizabeth Eley Wright '13, in memory of her sister, and alumna of the Class of 1909. For financial assistance to needy and worthy students.