WHY I GIVE

THE WHITESIDE FAMILY LEGACY

Mabel Whiteside Ehlert '39 was born in 1917. She was a Phi Beta Kappa Latin major who distinguished herself in three Greek Plays directed by her aunt and namesake, Mabel K. Whiteside. All the years she was a successful professional advertising writer and creative manager for Silver Burdett Publishing Company, she maintained her relationship to the College, even serving as president of the New York alumnae chapter.

Her relationships to the College run deep. She is sister of Miss Mary Norman Whiteside '36 of New York City, niece of the late Miss Annie Whiteside, longtime Randolph-Macon

Mabel Whiteside Ehlert '39

Woman's College registrar, and Miss Mabel K. Whiteside, who was the founder of the Greek Play at R-MWC and professor of Greek from 1904-1954. In December 2007, Mabel Whiteside Ehlert gave a generous gift to the College and also indicated bequest intentions.

Associate Professor Amy Cohen who has enjoyed telephone conversations with her says, "Mabel Whiteside Ehlert has been generous to the College, not only materially but also in sharing memories of her time in Lynchburg. It has been a joy to learn about and converse with "young" Mabel, and I so look forward to many more of her valuable insights."
