Centro di Conservazione Archeologica, Belmonte in Sabina, Italy
University of Sassari, Sant’ Imbenia excavation in Alghero, Sardinia

May 18 - June 13, 2015

Instruction and hands-on experience in conservation methods of Roman fresco and mosaics at the Centro di Conservazione Archeologica, and stone-carving with Peter Rockwell in Rome.

- Evening programs in local Italian culture. Excursions to Ostia, Rieti, Assisi and Spoleto and weekend trip to Rome.
- Excavation at the late bronze – early iron age Nuraghic settlement at Sant’ Imbenia, Sardinia.
- Weekend and day-trips sightseeing in Sardinia
- Two- four undergraduate academic credits available through Randolph College.

$4,000 program cost per person includes:
- Full room, board, materials, programs at the Convento di San Nicola, daytrips from CCA and transfers to/from Rome.
- Full room, board, materials, transportation in Alghero and transfers to and from Sardinia.
- Other Costs (estimated): Airfare to-from Italy ($1500), weekend stays in Rome and Alghero ($350), Required trip insurance ($85) and passport fees (if applicable), Course credit: $300-600 (optional).

APPLICATION DEADLINE February 1st, 2015

For more information, schedule and an application contact: sstevens@randolphcollege.edu.
Read past ACI students’ blog: http://aci.go.randolphcollege.edu
See their video: http://bit.ly/1ym4nJs