- B. Essay: your 500-word application essay should indicate why you would like to participate in this summer study seminar. The essay should describe how this particular program would contribute to your educational, professional, and/or personal goals. The essay should also address any challenges you believe you might face, whether academic or personal, while abroad.

6. Signature and Agreement

Submitting this signed form registers your application, authorizes Dean Goodjohn to access your unofficial transcript, and signifies your agreement with the following statement:

If I am accepted into this program I understand that preparation, presence, and participation are expected of me in all group activities. I will do my best to help create and encourage positive group dynamics by being punctual and congenial and by adhering to the Randolph College honor code while I am abroad. I will be sensitive to and respectful of local customs and culture; I will follow faculty recommendations on issues of safety and security. I also acknowledge that if I receive a Randolph College scholarship for this program that I am expected to return to the College to take classes during the semester immediately following my overseas experience. If I fail to return, I will be responsible for repaying my scholarship to Randolph College.

A representative of the Summer Study Seminar program will confirm your acceptance into the program once your application materials have been reviewed and approved.
