Randolph College offers a way for those who do not yet have a roommate in mind to find someone with whom they could live well. In order to facilitate the process of choosing a roommate, please answer the questions below as honestly as possible. Once we understand your preferences, we will be able to more effectively search for a roommate who has similar preferences/living habits.

1. Rank the following in order of importance to you. 1 being most important, 10 being least important
   - Sleep
   - Music/Art
   - Socializing
   - Personal Space
   - Quiet
   - Study
   - Athletics
   - Friendship
   - Time to Self
   - Activity

2. What are your study preferences?
   a. In room
   b. Elsewhere
   a. With music/noise in the background
   b. Without music/noise in the background
   a. Primarily during the day
   b. Primarily in the evening

3. Do you smoke?
   a. Yes
   b. No
   c. I do not smoke, but I would live with a smoker.

   All residence halls are smoke-free, but we recognize some individuals may have a strong preference regarding this personal habit.

4. Which of the following most closely describes you?
   a. Messy
   b. Neat
   a. Outgoing
   b. Shy
   a. Morning person
   b. Night owl

5. How do you feel about social visitors?
   a. Social visitors are fine with me anytime.
   b. Social visitors are ok sometimes depending on what else is going on in the room.
   c. Social visitors should be limited to the weekends.

6. What are your expectations regarding overnight guests?
   a. I prefer that my roommate(s) and I do not have overnight guests.
   b. Overnight guests should be limited to the weekends and to those of the same gender.
   c. Overnight guests are permissible regardless of gender, but should be limited to the weekends.
   d. Overnight guests are fine anytime, but should be limited to those of the same gender.
   e. Overnight guests are fine anytime regardless of gender.

7. I am only comfortable living with:
   a. A male student
   b. A female student
   c. Any roommate regardless of sex.

Any other information you would like to share: ____________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________________

Name:________________________________________________________________________________________
Cell Phone Number:_____________________________________________________________________________
Email Address:_________________________________________________________________________________
Class Year:____________________________________________________________________________________