

STUDENT SERVICES

You're not alone when you're at Randolph. We offer a wide variety of services designed to help you along in day-to-day life.

DEAN OF STUDENTS

The Dean of Students Office is located on the first floor of Main Hall.

Chris Lemasters - Dean of Students

Amanda Denny - Assistant Dean for Residence Life and Student Conduct

Kayce Croy - Assistant Director of Residence Life

Tanya Weigold - Director of Campus Life

Lisa Quell - Coordinator of Student Engagement

Brent Lewis - Director of Identity, Culture, and Inclusion

Donna Burckhard - Executive Assistant to the Dean of Students

434-947-8119 - deanofstudents@randolphcollege.edu

RESIDENCE LIFE

You'll find plenty of support should you need it. Each hall is staffed by a student hall director (Head Resident) responsible for building safety, student well-being, and staff supervision. Resident Assistants (RAs) build community, resolve conflicts, and address safety issues. If you have any issues within your resident hall, please contact your RA for assistance.

ACADEMIC SERVICES

In the Academic Services Center, you'll find all the tools you need to help craft your academic success. Located in the Library, we are open during regular library hours for your convenience, and we have a variety of academic support services such as tutoring, writing lab, and academic strategies.

HEALTH CENTER

Located in the Terrell Health and Counseling Centers Building adjacent to the Chapel.

434-947-8130

Normal hours during the regular academic year

Monday-Friday 9 a.m.- 4 p.m. (walk-ins must sign in by 3:45 p.m.)

Nurse Practitioner hours by appointment only

After hours and for emergencies, contact the Reception and Information Desk (RAID) at 434-947-8000 (or extension 8000 from a campus phone) and ask for the Head Resident on call or Security.

CAREER DEVELOPMENT CENTER

Our career planning services include career assessment, job search strategies, career-related workshops such as resume and cover letter writing, opportunities to network with graduates, attend career and graduate school fairs, and assistance with graduate and professional school applications
