

Residence Life Evaluation of Study Abroad Applicant

Applicant's Name _____

Applying for: Summer Study Seminar

Deadline: October 22

Please evaluate the applicant for suitability in the summer study abroad program.

The student who is accepted for this program should be academically sound, able to live harmoniously with others in relatively confined quarters, stable and reasonably self-reliant. Please return to:

Bunny Goodjohn, Associate Dean
Office of International Programs & Study Abroad
2500 Rivermont Avenue
Lynchburg, Virginia 24503-1555

bgoodjohn@randolphcollege.edu

Waiver Statement by Applicant:

I hereby waive my rights of access now and in the future to the information contained in this evaluation.

(Applicant's Signature)

(Date)

(over, please)

Applicant's Name _____

	Poor	Average	Good	Excellent	Unable to Comment
a. Emotional Maturity & Stability
b. Adaptability or Flexibility
c. Consideration for Others
d. Study Habits
e. Courtesy
f. Cooperativeness
g. Acceptance of Criticism
h. Initiative
i. Ability to Avoid Taking Oneself Too Seriously
j. Reliability
k. Sense of Responsibility
l. Interaction with Peers

Narrative comment on any of the above items or other pertinent matters (feel free to attach a letter on your letterhead if that is easier):

The above comments are based on:

- _____ personal observations and contact
- _____ a conference with the Resident Assistant

Name (please print): _____ Title: _____

Date: _____ Signature: _____